dismisses the claims against Defendants in whole or in part.

As the Ninth Circuit has confirmed "(t) he reverses of E.P. Civ.P. 12(1)(C) is

- a. As the Ninth Circuit has confirmed, "(t)he purpose of F.R.Civ.P. 12(b)(6) is to enable defendants to challenge the legal sufficiency of complaints without subjecting themselves to discovery." Rutman Wine Co. v. E. & J. Gallo Winery, 829 F.2d 729, 738 (9th Cir. 1987).

 Likewise, a district court has "wide discretion in controlling discovery." Little v. City of Seattle, 863 F.2d 681, 685 (9th Cir. 1988); see also FRCP 26(d)(1) (describing the court's ability to limit the scope of discovery). Ultimately, when deciding whether to grant a stay of discovery, a court is guided by the objectives of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 1 that ensures a "just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action." Schrader v. Wynn Las Vegas, LLC, 2021 WL 4810324, *3 (D. Nev. Oct. 14, 2021) (quoting FRCP 1); see also Tradebay, LLC v. eBay, Inc., 278 F.R.D. 597, 601 (D. Nev. 2011) (explaining that courts evaluating the propriety of a stay have cautioned against the use of resources that may be rendered unnecessary, noting the simple, but accurate principle: "Discovery is expensive").
- 4. The Parties are in agreement that discovery is not required for the Court to decide Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. As the Court's ruling could potentially result in dismissal of some or all of the claims against District, it would be an inefficient use of resources to engage in discovery prior to the Court's ruling. See Sibley v. U.S. Sup. Ct., 786 F. Supp. 2d 338, 346 (D.D.C. 2011) ("(I)t is well settled that discovery is generally considered inappropriate while a motion that would be thoroughly dispositive of the claims in the Complaint is pending."). As such, it is within the Court's power to grant a stay of discovery at this time.
- 5. Accordingly, the Parties, after consultation with one another, have determined it would be in the best interest of all Parties to request that this Court grant a stay of discovery until the Court renders a decision on Defendants' pending Motion to Dismiss. None of the Parties believe this delay will cause harm to their ability to conduct discovery in this matter, nor will it cause either side to be in a worse position.

- 6. The Parties believe that, by not expending more funds or time until the Motion to Dismiss is resolved, the Parties have put themselves in the best position possible to preserve resources and protect their respective funds. See FRCP 1 and LR 1-1. The interests of litigation efficiency and judicial economy are also promoted by a stay of discovery.
- 7. The Parties further stipulate to delay submission of the stipulated discovery plan and discovery order for thirty (30) days after this Court files its decision on Defendants' pending Motion to Dismiss (ECF No. 15).

Respectfully submitted:
